Sample Questions and Model Answers from the Memorandum

Question 1: Define tourism and explain its importance to the economy.

Model Answer: Tourism is the activity of traveling to and staying in places outside one's usual environment for leisure, business, or other purposes. It is a vital sector for many economies because it creates employment opportunities, generates foreign exchange, stimulates infrastructure development, and promotes cultural exchange. The tourism industry contributes significantly to GDP, especially in countries with attractive natural or cultural sites.

Question 2: List and describe three types of tourism.

Model Answer:

- Leisure tourism: Traveling for relaxation, entertainment, or personal enjoyment, such as holidays at beaches or resorts.
- Business tourism: Travel related to professional activities like conferences, seminars, or corporate meetings.
- Cultural tourism: Visiting historical sites, museums, or cultural festivals to learn about and experience different cultures.

Question 3: Discuss two negative impacts of tourism on local communities.

Model Answer: Tourism can lead to cultural erosion, where traditional practices and local customs are diluted or lost due to the influence of external cultures. Additionally, increased tourism may strain local resources, leading to overcrowding, pollution, and heightened living costs, which can negatively affect residents' quality of life.

Detailed Breakdown of the Memorandum Responses

The memorandum provides model answers that exemplify depth, accuracy, and clarity. Here, we analyze some of the key responses to illustrate the examiners' expectations.

Question 1: Define tourism and explain its importance to a country.

Expected Response:

Tourism is the activity of traveling to and staying in places outside one's usual environment for leisure, business, or other purposes, for a period of less than one year. Its importance to a country includes boosting the economy through foreign exchange earnings, creating employment opportunities, stimulating local businesses, enhancing cultural exchange, and promoting national branding.

Memorandum Highlights:

- Clear definition emphasizing travel for leisure or business.
- Explanation of economic benefits such as foreign exchange and employment.

- Recognition of cultural and social development aspects.
- Use of relevant examples to support points.

Expert Note:

A comprehensive answer demonstrates understanding of both the activity and its multifaceted benefits, aligning with the memorandum's expectations.

Question 2: Discuss the differences between internal and external tourism, providing examples.

Expected Response:

Internal tourism refers to residents traveling within their own country for leisure, business, or other purposes, such as domestic holidaymakers visiting national parks. External tourism involves residents traveling outside their country's borders, for example, international tourists visiting South Africa for safaris.

Memorandum Highlights:

- Definitions clearly distinguished.
- Examples illustrating each type.
- Importance of both types for the tourism industry.

Expert Note:

Exam answers should not only define but also analyze the implications of each, such as economic impact and marketing strategies.

Question 3: Outline the principles of sustainable tourism and suggest ways to promote it.

Expected Response:

Principles of sustainable tourism include environmental conservation, socio-cultural respect, economic viability, and community involvement. To promote sustainable tourism, strategies include developing eco-friendly attractions, educating tourists on responsible behavior, involving local communities in decision-making, and implementing policies that protect natural and cultural resources.

Memorandum Highlights:

- Emphasis on balancing economic, social, and environmental factors.
- Practical suggestions for promotion.
- Examples of successful sustainable tourism initiatives.

Expert Note:

Students are encouraged to cite specific case studies or initiatives, demonstrating application of principles.
